

ABOUT VANDERHOOF CF

The Vanderhoof Community Foundation is a non-profit organization, supporting our communities by partnering with donors to build permanent endowment funds for local projects and initiatives.

The Vanderhoof Community Foundation operates under the auspices of the Community Foundations of Canada.

The Board of Directors is made up of local representatives who reside within Regional District of Bulkley-Nechako Area F.

We work to support a broad, inclusive and diverse community where life in the area is enhanced and strengthened.

You can also pledge your time by volunteering with the VCF to help with fundraising and decision making.

COMMUNITY FOUNDATIONS

A Community Foundation Endowment Fund is held in perpetuity. It provides a unique opportunity for individuals and businesses to support community driven initiatives that improve arts and culture, the environment, education, health and social services, and sports and recreation of all citizens for the long-term.

The Vanderhoof Community Foundation Endowment Fund supports initiatives within Regional District Bulkley-Nechako Area F.

The Fund is being managed by The Prince George Community Foundation. It is a public charity, thus tax receipts are issued for all charitable donations. The Fund is professionally managed to give us the best possible returns and the least risk.

WHY DONATE?

Reasons to donate to the Vanderhoof Community Foundation Endowment Fund...

- You care about your community and want to make it a better place to live.
- You want to leave a lasting legacy, whether it is $100 or $100,000.
- You want to support the Regional District of Bulkley-Nechako Area F shape its future for the better, through grants for projects funded from the earnings of your investment.

Your great grandchildren can look at your contribution and feel pride in what you have done for the place they call home. And, because the endowment fund is for perpetuity they too can follow in your footsteps.

WAYS TO PARTICIPATE

- Give a one-time gift, or pledge an amount over time.
- Establish a corporate giving program. A business may find it beneficial to use the Foundation as a vehicle for community giving.
- Make the Vanderhoof Community Foundation the owner and irrevocable beneficiary of your life insurance policy, and/or name it in your will.
- Perpetuate the name of a friend or relative through an In Memoriam gift.
- Ask your employer to have your donation deduction directed to the Vanderhoof Community Foundation, where you will get to see the results within your own community.

Donations in any amount are accepted.

It is possible to designate substantial gifts in your family or business name to a specific purpose.
